1. Approval of the Agenda

2. Public Communications

Members of the public may address the Commission on matters not listed on the agenda. The Commission is unable to take any formal action on an issue that is not listed on this agenda, however, items may also be referred to City staff and/or future meeting agendas. Public comments may be limited to accommodate all speakers within the time available, or they may also be continued to later in the meeting should the time allotted for public comment expire. Citizens who wish to present their comments for matters listed on the agenda should do so at the time the item is considered by the Commission.

3. Parks and Facilities Master Plan Update Improvements and Prioritization

The Parks and General Services Department and the Recreation and Parks Commission will be hosting a public workshop to focus on strategies and park improvements based on Guiding Principals developed at the last workshop held in November. The public will have the opportunity to add to the list as part of the process and help develop a priority strategy for making decisions on future projects. More information is available on the City's web site at <http://www.cityofdavis.org/pgs/masterplan/> .

Adjourn

The Davis Recreation & Park Commission is an appointed advisory body to the Davis City Council, and is co-facilitated through the Community Services Department and the Parks & General Services Department.

Meeting facilities are accessible to persons with disabilities. Requests for alternative agenda document formats, assisted listening devices or other considerations for persons with disabilities are available by contacting the City Clerk's office at (530) 757-5648 (voice) or 757-5666 (TDD). Requests should be made as soon as possible and minimally at least 24 hours prior to the meeting date.
