Man Stabbed While Walking in Davis

Davis Police responded to the emergency room at Sutter-Davis Hospital on Wednesday night, March 10, 2010, after a victim claimed was stabbed while possibly walking in the area of Chestnut Lane in Davis. The victim was treated for non-life threatening stab wounds to his back, neck, and chin.

Due to the victim's unfamiliarity with Davis, he was not certain of the exact location where the incident occurred. The victim told officers he believed he was walking on Chestnut Lane near Pole Line Road.

The victim was unable to identify any of his attackers, although he did see 3 assailants. After the attack he was able to phone a friend to take him to the hospital.

Police are asking that anyone who may have information about this incident to contact the Davis Police Department Investigations Division (530) 747-5430.
