Gunman Robs UC Davis Students

On Saturday March 13, 2010, the Davis Police Department responded to the Avalon Apartments, 1617 Valdora Street, for the report of two UC Davis students who were robbed of their laptop computers.

The two victims reported that they were in the community room at the Avalon Apartment at approximately 1015 p.m studying for their finals. The suspect knocked on the locked community room door and, not knowing who was outside, the victim opened it allowing the suspect access. After gaining entry, the suspect presented a handgun and demanded the victim's laptops. The suspect stole two laptops, an I-Phone and a calculator. There were no injuries to either victim.

The suspect exited the community room and fled in a black SUV driven by a second suspect. The victim's were unable to see the driver of the suspect vehicle.

Both victims described the suspect who entered the community room as:

White Male Adult, approximately 25 -30 years old, 5'11" to 6'0" tall, with short, un known color hair, skinny build, wearing a solid dark color baseball cap, and a dark shirt or sweatshirt with a "CAL" logo on the front. The suspect was described to have brandished a black colored handgun.

Police are asking that anyone who may have information about this incident to contact the Davis Police Department Investigations Division (530) 747-5430.
